

City & Guilds Medal for Excellent 2013 – 2014

Despark College, The Most Winners in South East Asia

3 Trainers from Despark College were awarded the Medal for Excellence by City & Guilds. City & Guilds is the global vocational education organisation, runs its annual Medals for Excellence programme to recognise outstanding achievement across 81 countries throughout the world. In Despark College we believe that innovation, dedication and excellence are the innate qualities that one education institution should have, we continue to produce quality education and strive to be the Hub of Automotive Education.